Helping hedgehogs roam
from garden to garden

Manufactured from

Did You Know?

Hedgehogs are now classified as vulnerable to extinction and are also listed as a species of principal importance.

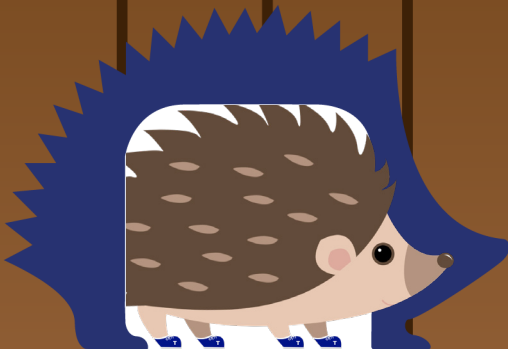

The population of hedgehogs in Great Britain is estimated below 1 million, compared to over 30 million in the 1950s.

Hedgehogs can travel up to 2 miles a night so it is vital that we connect gardens to enable them to roam.

How To Install

Cut a 13 x 13cm hole in your garden fence or wall - use the centre of the Hedgehog Highway as a template if needed. A 13 x 13cm hole is large enough for hedgehogs but too small for most pets to fit through.

Line up the Hedgehog Highway with the hole and secure into place with screws (not provided).

Hedgehogs can travel up to 2 miles a night so connecting gardens is vital to enable them to roam.

How Else To Help The Hedgehogs

Make sure any ponds, drains or holes are hedgehog-safe.

Create a ramp to prevent drowning in ponds and cover up any drains or holes to avoid trapping.

Create a wild corner in your garden

where plants can grow freely. Hedgehogs will benefit from the abundance of insects and potentially nest there in winter.

Help hedgehogs in need

Hedgehogs are nocturnal so if you see one out during the daytime that isn't moving, is moving slowly or looks sick or injured then pick it up (using gloves), put it in a high-sided box and contact your local hedgehog rescue centre.

Stop using chemicals

Lawn treatments reduce worm populations. Pesticides, insecticides and slug pellets are toxic and reduce hedgehogs' creepy crawly prey. All chemicals are unnecessary in a healthy, well-managed garden.

Hedgehogs really benefit from extra food

Meaty cat or dog food, hedgehog food and kitten biscuits are all great supplements. Plus, fresh water to drink, as it can be scarce at certain times of the year.

A Worthy Cause

A donation from the sale of each Hedgehog Highway by Timloc will be made to hedgehog rescue centres and support organisations across the UK.
