

Auto Gate Catch

IAG Range

A simple mechanism for closing and securing a gate. When the gate is closed the pin engages and automatically lifts the cam in the latch which then falls in front of the pin securing the gate. The tab of the latch has to be pressed inward to allow the gate to be released.

